Mr. Sammon at first believed this to be a case of hit-run, but found that the driver of the other car, not being able to locate the owner of the car he struck proceeded to the police station and reported the accident.

Damage was done to the rear left fender of Mr. Sammon's car and the tail light was broken. Sgt. Imbimbo investigated.

Police Campaign Against Pranksters

Police are on the look-out for youngsters (or oldsters), who make sport of motorists by tying ropes or wires across highways and draping various bits of cloth or paper over the line, causing a definite traffic hazard.

Last week, on Wednesday, a citizen of Salem St., phoned police to complain that someone had tied a clothes line across the road and had pinned various articles of feminine apparel to it, causing great distress to drivers in the area.

Officer Burke investigated the call and removed the obstruction.

AFTER THE MOSQUITOES

The Tree Dept. is presently engaged in re-spraying the entire Town against mosquitoes. This program was undertaken on the recommendation of the Board of Health as a precautionary measure against Equine Encephalitis (horse sleeping sickness).

Although no cases have occurred in Wilmington, health officials are aware of the possibility of infected mosquitoes drifting into Middlesex County and are therefore taking immediate action.

Dr. Roy Feemster, Director of the Division of Communicable Diseases has stated that the areas threatened are Plymouth, Bristol and Norfolk Counties and Governor Herter has authorized the use of State funds for airplane spraying of all large swamps in the areas where the disease is likely to occur.

An incident that is better forgotten

"Moocher" Mulligan stopped into a tavern and making his way to the bar ordered a beer.

Un-fortunately he found himself along side of "Lone Drinker Donahue."

"Lone - Drinker" never bought one for anyone.

He sipped, and nursed his until it was flatter than fourteen flounders, and more woe-be-gone than an old maid's smile.

Just as "Moocher" was about to down his drink, the fire department, with its usual clatter stopped outside.

The "Moocher" started for the door, stopped, then returned to the bar, whereupon he wrote a note which read, "I spit in this beer," and placed it under the glass. He then left.

"Lone Drinker" hastily wrote another note reading, "So did I," placing that also under the glass.

Soon "Moocher" returned, and noticing the two notes under his glass, read them both.

EVERYONE IS WORKING FOR JIMMY

George Spanos was so pleased by the work done by four young children, in aid of the Jimmy Fund that he asked us to bring it to your attention.

Last week, a Jimmy Fund Circus was conducted by Laurie McCabe, Elaine LaRivee, Ellen Rice and Marcia Stevens. The event took place at the home of Miss LaRivee on Concord St. The girls worked very hard, put on a delightful show which pleased every member of the audience and carried their profits to George immediately following the close of the performance.

The total profits gained from admission fees came to $2.79. Congratulations girls, George is very happy and is entire town. Thanks a million for your efforts.

Saved by his lawyer

The defendant's lawyer, determined at all cost to save his client from the electric chair, surreptitiously approached one of the jurors.

"I'll make it worth your while," said the lawyer, if you'll see 'to verdict of manslaughter in the second degree."

The trial proceeded, and the jury retired.

After seven hours they brought in the verdict, manslaughter in the second degree, and the defendant was given a long prison term.

The lawyer, going to pay off the juror, thanked him warmly.

"It was pretty hard," admitted the juror.

"At first they were all for acquittal, but I managed to talk them out of it."

Magic

Steve Smith of the Pet

Shop at Silver Lake is showing an amazing new discovery around. Wondering where the many flies that usually inhabit a pet shop had gone, Steve showed me a card with eight small discs attached. These discs are no larger than a dime and are attached to any surface where flies are apt to congregate. After sticking them to a wall, glass, or under a table or chair the flies are apparently struck by a gamma ray or something, he had no explanation as to why all flies were dead nor was there any explanation on the package. All Steve knows is that they all 'kicked the bucket'.

Well, I certainly made a good impression on her, said the cane bottomed chair as the artist's model stood up.

Losing A Tough One . . .

Monday evening before a well attended and very well played ball game at the Town Park a retired (14 years) ball player came back to pitch perhaps the best ball game of his life, only to lose it in the sixth inning on a big fat pitch to one, J. O'Brien of the Greer Co. Joe Yentile of Cross St. hurled a one hit-tington, but he made one bad pitch, to the aforementioned O'Brien and that was the ball game. The Police had four hits, two long doubles by Chief Paul Lynch, a triple by George Spanos who went in to pinch hit for Officer Shepard in the eighth and a screaming single by that speed merchant, who incidentally stole four bases (a misdemeanor) Sgt. Imbimbo. Singled out for honors among the Police were Officers Hogan, Cuoco, Fuller and Elsworth. And in case you were at the game the above story is a dream that Chief Paul Lynch and George Spanos had the night before. Incidentally Greer's won the game by the score of 17 to 3.

Cruising . . .

Paul McCabe prop. of Merri-Mac Cleaners and his friend, Jimmie Baldwin are cruising either up or down the Saint Lawrence River on a two day and three night excursion. Right now we'll take book that neither one cares whether it's up or down as long as there are some of those beautiful French Mademoiselles aboard. It is understood that the females aboard these excursion vessels outnumber the males five to one. But we understand that Paul is out solely for the enjoyment of the scenery . . . haw, haw, haw.

WILMINGTON, A FRIENDLY TOWN

A few years back the town of Wilmington, Mass., was known as a cold unneighborly town. People in various parts seemed to be friendly only with people in their own sections.

Church groups were friendly with their own particular groups.

Since the advent of Welcome Wagon, we have noticed a gradual change - a warmth permeates from various sections. People get together more and there is more comradeship and understanding throughout different groups.

In the Welcome Wagon Basket, Mrs. Marion Woller, Wilmington's Hostess, carries pamphlets for all religious faiths; national and local drives and a local map from the Selectmen and helpful information for all, plus gifts from Sponsors.

We think Wilmington is definitely a Welcome Wagon Town.

TREE DEPT. ON THE JOB

Due to a recent outbreak of Sleeping Sickness, which it has been determined is contracted by a mosquito, our Tree Dept. Superintendent feels that it may relieve some worried citizens to read the following statement:

Mr. Babine states that his dept., started on Monday morning, August 20 to spray the town eliminating the mosquito hazard as much as is humanly possible. They started spraying again Wednesday morning at 1:00 a.m. The reason for the early start? To work before the traffic begins to get heavy as the dept. plans to spray main roads first covering the remainder of the town during the day.

This is the third time during this year that this operation has been completed, so citizens should feel reasonably safe.

This dept. has also been busily spraying the roadsides to kill poison ivy and hopes to have this project completed in the near future.

In case anyone has wondered why the old Elm tree next to the library was taken down, Mr. Babine offers this explanation: Much to his dismay (he dislikes to take down any tree, much less one that has been around so long) this tree was afflicted with "Dutch Elm" a disease common among Elm trees and very contagious (to other Elm trees). During the past summer, members of the tree dept. have removed fourteen Elms in an effort to control the disease.

-Patronize Your Wilmington Merchants -

-: Circling The Square -:

with Esther Moore

When we made our trip of the square Monday morning we found some of our merchants much too busy to talk to anyone but their customers, a situation we are happy to report upon. One factor which is credited with bringing people back to the Square by many of the businessmen, especially those without their own parking lots, is, of course, the new parking regulations. We hear the B & M is proceeding with their plans for a larger parking area, which will further relieve the congestion present in some areas. We doubt that the line of cars on both sides of Burlington Ave. present a safe situation. The owners of the cars are not at fault, they would be glad to park in a better place if one were available. Let us all hope that the plans for the new parking area come to completion this time.

We pick up some interesting bits of knowledge about merchandising and business in general in our visits around town. For example, we thought that Monday was a slow day, at it was when we worked in a theater in Boston. But on the contrary, it seems that, as one businessman put it, "They go to the big shopping areas on the weekends, and then spend what is left here Monday." Well, soon Wilmington may have its own big shopping center, and the sooner the better for all concerned. While our new zoning laws make our growth orderly and sensible, we still are growing, and fast. Hardly a street in town that has room on it for building doesn't show signs of someone's efforts to raise a house. The residents of the town will be glad to shop here if they can find what they want.

Speaking of finding what you want, there are very few items in the five-and-ten line that you can't find in the Bress Store in the Theater Building. While we talked to Tom Bresnahan who owns this thriving little business, he was engaged in finding space to put up a new set of shelves to hold more of the items that he features. No matter how loud the youngsters protest the opening of School, they still take a great delight in the clean page and the long pencil, and this is the place to find them. The Bress line of School Supplies is quite complete. This is also where you'll find the socks and the hair ribbons, the curler and the shoelace, the small clothes and the lunchbox. This is where the children go, where they pick out the present for Mother, where they choose the toy on which to spend the dime they received from the rich uncle. This is where the girl with her first dance coming up stocks up war paint for the battle of the beauties.

And the housewife!! What a gallery of gadgets! What an assortment of the 'little things!!' The cuphook, the duster, the waveset, curtain-rod, rattle, spool of thread, scarf, scratch pad, measuring spoon, bobby pin, and last but far from least, the can opener. Where else do you find them all?

Wilmington's ten-cent store is a family affair, Mr. Bresnahan is very ably assisted by Mrs. Bresnahan and their two children, Thomas, Jr. and Mary Jo. Tom Bresnahan had plenty of experience behind him when he decided to strike out on his own. For years he had managed one large store after another for one of the largest chains in the country, being sent on a moment's notice to take over strange stores, in strange territories.

And we are proud to say that Wilmington was the town he picked for his venture into owning his own business. The family now resides in Arlington, but the charms of our town have not escaped them, for they are planning to move here soon. And they will be as welcome as townsfolk as their business is in our Square.

NICKEL-CHROMIUM ALLOYS

Alloys of nickel and chromium have excellent properties. For example, the alloy of 80 per cent nickel and 20 per cent chromium has a high resistance to scaling and will retain its useful strength even at temperatures up to 2,000 degrees

Electric lamp bulbs valued at $43,352,000 were shipped in 1954 by Massachusetts manufacturers. It was the second largest producing state, having five establishments employing 2,414 per Fahrenheit.

Tales of a Traveler

It's an often-told tale, among the older employees of the worldwide American Express organization, that one of the oddest assignments ever completed in a company, whose history is filled with a record of strange jobs, was that of a cruise director just before the start of World War II. He was taking a group of American Express-booked travelers on a journey around the world.

Before he returned home to New York he'd had to cope with a civil war in Shanghai; a millionaire who refused to go ashore except at night for fear she might be recognized; and an animal trainer who filled the ship's hold with a weird aggregation of birds, boas, monkeys and panthers. On the same cruise, a hotel in the wild mountains of Japan, to which some of the passengers had gone on a visit, burned down and the tourists had to spend several days with the rugged mountaineers.

But he felt his greatest achievement was in not losing his mind trying to reason with a passenger who demanded a refund because he lost a day when the ship crossed the International Date Line.

Then there is the odd fact that the novice traveler can sometimes get a better rate of exchange for his American money abroad than the "know-it-all" experienced traveler who has all kinds of "angles." This smart aleck will tell you about a Paris back street where furtive currency "operators" will give you more than the regular rate of exchange for your dollars. But the "average American" in Paris, using travelers' checks, simply goes to regular retail shops and can get up to 15 or 20 per cent discount on merchandise as he buys—in fact, many shops display signs to this effect.

Ever try to spend foreign money? Take a 1000-franc note into the shopping district of your town and see how far you'll get making a purchase or getting change. No one will accept the foreign currency, until you go to a bank that handles foreign exchange and then the bank will take a discount on the exchange rate. But go to any foreign country with American money in the form of 10-20- or 50-dollar travelers' checks, and they'll be treated as "coin of the realm." You will gladly be given full exchange value at any foreign bank, hotel, restaurant, shop, and so on.

As a drunk staggered his way homeward he pondered the ways of concealing his condition from his wife. "I'll go home and read," he decided. "Who ever heard of a drunken man reading a book?"

Later his wife heard a noise in the library.

"What in the world are you doing in there?" she asked.

"Reading my dear," he replied cheerfully.

"You old idiot" she said, as she looked in at the library door, "shut up that valise and come to bed."

"THE VITAL CHURCH"

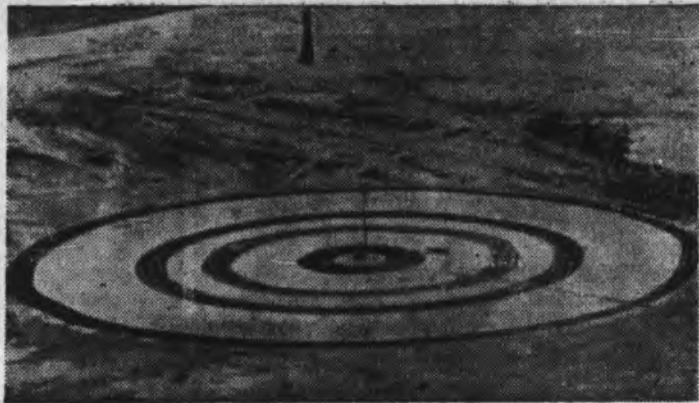

SERMON TOPIC AT METHODIST CHURCH

The Rev. Richard E. Harding will preach on the theme: "The Vital Church". Mr. Harding returns to his pulpit after his absence last Sunday, when he preached in the Wesley Methodist Church of Springfield. He returned to Wilmington amazed that the chapel in that church, where an early morning service was held, was considerably larger than the sanctuary of the Wilmington Church.

Richard Willson, who was guest soloist last Sunday, will provide special music, and Miss Judy Palmer, organist, at the South Tewksbury Methodist Church will be the organist for this service.

Members of the famed Royal Canadian Mounted Police form "The Bridal Arch" one of the thrilling maneuvers to music which they will perform during their appearance at the Eastern States Exposition, West Springfield, (Mass.) September 15-23.

BULLS-EYE marking Ground Zero of Operation Redwing's Cherokee test shot was actually laid out on tiny Namu Island, in Bikini Atoll of the Marshall Islands in mid-Pacific. The bomb was not intended to hit the bulls-eye, but to explode 10,000 feet above it just before dawn.

LETTER ABOUT PRISCILLA PARK

Mrs. Fred T. Corum, Leader, Wilmington Mounties 4-H Horse Club Dear Mrs. Corum,

A friend saw in the Wilmington Crusader what your group of 4-H'ers were doing in Priscilla's memory, and told me about it.

I can't say enough in thanking those who help make it possible.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Dorothy R. Park The above letter is a true tribute to the Jimmy Fund.

V.F.W. DUGOUT DOINGS

Well Folks—we're getting close to cook out time and at present it looks like a good thing. The ticket returns are good and all we need now is good weather. Contests are all lined up—for young and old—the corn is tender—the watermelon sweet. Bring your appetites folks, there will be plenty of chow.

Bill LaScelles wrote and says thanks for the dues card and poor guy is still waiting for the spaghetti feed, he had promised to him last year and never got. Well, Bill, next time you're in I'll have Rita make you up a special dish—promise.

The social last Saturday night was very successful. As usual, we ate a lot and danced a lot. Plans were made for a trip to Wyman's Beach, Sunday, but a few of us didn't make it. It must have been the hot weather, Saturday.

Congratulations, Ray Dewhurst on your new born daughter—the Post extends their pleasure and here's hoping Kay will be up and around soon.

Freddie and Debbie are staying a week at Salisbury Beach. I only wish Freddie had made his cook-out returns before he left.

American Legion Hall ought to look pretty good after the paint party last Thursday. They tell me it's a light blue—no pink.

After dodging Freddie Kleyen's sloppy Joe glass all week, I finally got caught with a lap full of root beer. Beware all you visitors to his house—drink out of the bottle.

Alan Fenton had a birthday last week and a few of us celebrated at his home. Marilyn was a real cool hostess and all present had a good time.

Met Bob Clark, membership drive chairman and he reports that we are doing very well and have two new members coming in the next meeting night. Incidentally, Nancy, you should enjoy the cook-out?

Our thanks to Hal McKelvey for the remarkable job he did in assisting on the sales of cook-out tickets.

Helen Witham didn't feel so well last Saturday night at the social, but we're glad to see her up and around again.

Have got all but one fifty foot reel of film spliced together if you Wyman Beach girls, would like to see yourself as others do—let me know and we'll run them off at the next social—in color too.

You will see many interesting sights—such as Keynen dumping Rosie, in her new bathing suit, in the water, or Joe (Flip) Bradley making like Jerry Lewis. Every time Josie is in focus, she's preparing some of her delicious food.

Just Wondering:

Who it was that lost their car keys and had to take a cab home from Cambridge?

Why our liveliest auxiliary member was looking so glum Sunday night?

If the whole town can't pull together just this once and all attend our lobster cook-out?

When Father Regan and Doc Chernoff are going to play that game of tennis?

If my two sons in the service would write more often and call collect less often?

When Josie is going to present the Post with the new color covers?

How the old Sergeant is feeling and why he can't drop a card to the Post once in a while?

Without the help of these good men and women we could not run it, for it involves so much detail. And we are grateful too, to all who patronized it, and trust that all were well pleased.

Banns are called for the first time for John Hanson and Marion Ryan, and for Thomas McMahon and Mary Letellier.

WE WON'T TELL

On Thursday, August 16, Mrs. Esther Moore of 110 S. Ave., was pleasantly surprised when she proved to be the guest of honor at a birthday party given her by her six children. The cake, presented by Susan Moore, eldest of the group was beautifully decorated and gave evidence of the loving care poured into it. Lovely gifts were received by the guest of honor and a grand time was had by all.

What birthday was Mrs. Moore celebrating? Well, we can't tell exactly, but we feel sure she won't mind if we confide that it was somewhere between 25 and 40.

TO CORRECT A SLIGHT ERROR

Last week's issue of this paper announced that Mr. and Mrs. Gagnon of Nichols St., were the proud parents of a new daughter. It would seem that there is more than one man in town named Gagnon and that the announcement of last week, gave credit to the wrong one. The baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Gagnon, not Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gagnon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gagnon of Nichols St., wish to announce the arrival of their daughter, Linda Lee, born on Friday, August 10 at Choate Memorial Hospital in Woburn.

The couple have two older children, Pamela and Keith. Grandparent honors are being shared by Mr. and Mrs. Evans Fowle of Nichols St., and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gagnon of Lake St.

LOCAL FIREMAN PROUD FATHER

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dewhurst of Clyde Ave., wish to announce the arrival of their daughter, Robin Elizabeth, born on Friday, August 17 at Saugus General Hospital.

The couple has one other child, a son Allen. Mr. Dewhurst is a well-known member of our local fire dept.

NELLIE FOLEY VISITING EUROPE

The many friends of Nellie F. Foley, formerly of West St., will be interested to know that she is now enjoying a six weeks tour through Europe.

She will visit England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France. She plans a very thorough tour of points of interest in Italy including, Florence, Venice, Rome, Capri, Rapallo and the Italian Riviera. Miss Foley will also visit the French Riviera.

She hopes to highlight her tour by having an audience with the Pope while in Italy, and will fly home from Paris on October 1.

SCHOOL SEASON

The return to school—another precious part of that youngster's growing-up story—provides real picture opportunity for the wise parent. Situations with a natural story theme, like this, make fine subject matter for still or movie camera alike. And full-color family movies can be as easy and economical to take as snapshots. A new, wonderfully inexpensive Brownie Movie Camera is as easy to use as the name implies. It's necessary to make only one simple setting . . . sight and shoot. When those full-color movies fill the screen with all their action and realism, treasured times live again—just the way they happened.

RESTORES HEART BEAT

A portable apparatus that provides direct electrical stimulation of the heart, restored normal heart beat to many patients whose hearts had stopped, according to the 1956 Yearbook of The American Peoples Encyclopedia. The apparatus acts like an electrocardiograph in reverse, sending impulses into the heart rather than receiving them. It is described as more effective than other heart stimulation methods such as drug injection or hand massage.

DATA-COLLECTING instrument canisters are checked by a technician before they are dropped by parachute from a B-36 seconds prior to the actual H-bomb drop during Operation Redwing. Blast effects information from such equipment is valuable to civil defense in planning means of protection against atomic or hydrogen war. (JOTI Photo)

H-bomb Tests Vital to CD

The sky momentarily lights with the brilliance of a hundred suns, and then, within seconds, returns to the more subdued hues of a tropical dawn.

Another Hydrogen bomb test. More specifically, Operation Redwing, Cherokee shot.

AS THE PYROTECHNICS die away, there begins the real work of checking instruments, analyzing data, comparing Cherokee with former tests. Scientists in concrete bunkers only 20 miles from Ground Zero quickly begin to read their instruments. Planes, ships and rockets check the intensity of radioactive fallout and other effects of the blast.

Aboard a ship, the USS Mt. McKinley, about 37 miles from the blast, a party of Federal Civil Defense Administration observers remove their dark goggles. They, and others like them, must patiently wait for the scientists.

But they know that when the scientists have toted up the score, it will fall to them to refine existing techniques of population evacuation and shelter—perhaps devise new ones—to assure survival of the greatest number of persons if some day an American sky lights up like a hundred suns.

painted by Mrs. Sal Provenzano, were turned into plant containers with colored contact paper. Thanks to Mrs. Provenzano for this project.

An outstanding achievement, introduced by Assistant Anne Cavanaugh, was a giant-sized mural upon which every child had the opportunity to sketch or crayon in his ideas of a circus.

The parents had the chance to experience with their children the freedom existing on the playground and to see the miniature town in action. A tape recording captured the morning exercises and thirty "peewees" singing "a rainbow" to their guests. Crafts were on display. The heat shortened the outdoor game period but the mingling of the happy throng in the cool and spacious all-purpose room at picnic time was a joyful sight to behold.

Bernie McDonough was the most gracious to all. The children showed their appreciation of his and Jimmy Downs' cooperation by presenting them each a gimp tie clasp of their making.

Mrs. "Dot" (Dorothy Lafanatis) Supervisor of Arts and Crafts for the three Wilmington playgrounds took time out from her busy schedule to be a most welcome and helpful guest. She was presented with a red geranium by the children in recognition of her kind favors during the summer.

Prizes were presented to over thirty winners of games. Besides the gifts brought by the children the following Wilmington merchants donated prizes: Weinberg's Department Store, Ames' News, George's Restaurant, Church Street Hardware, The Bress Stores, The Shoe Craft Shop and the Wilmington Center Pharmacy.

Eleanor Kirkell deserves high praise for her outstanding leadership. Ann Cavanaugh and Eleanor make a great team with the children. Eleanor's mother Mary Kirkell is joining Betty Sullivan at their kindergarten in No. Wilmington this fall.

The acknowledgements to the Selectmen, Police and Fire Departments, the judges of the season's contests, the speakers and the parents are so many that space will not permit naming the interested parties. Larry Cushing, Director, can be certain the nucleus for his Friends to the Playgrounds is ready.

The Navy is conducting experiments on "flying submarines." The experimental model is just 7 feet in diameter and the controls are said to be handled under water almost exactly like those of an airplane in flight.

NATURALIZE 200,000

The number of persons naturalized in the United States the year ending June 30, 1955, totaled 200,526, an increase of 78 per cent over 1954, according to the 1956 Yearbook of The American Peoples Encyclopedia. A large number of petitions for naturalization were denied for the year, the Yearbook also notes. From 1950 to 1954, certificates denied totaled 2,244. By contrast, 4,571 petitions were denied last year.

BACK to SCHOOL

AND THEN WHAT?

Next to his parents, the person who does most to shape a child's future is usually his teacher.

However, our amazing population growth has left us terribly short of teachers. In the next 5 years, we must find another 780,000 capable people to give our children the education they must have!

What can we do, right here in our own Community? We can encourage college students to enter teaching as a career. And by working with our neighbors on Citizens' Committees and in Community Conferences, we can make plans NOW to attract the good teachers we'll need.

D.A.V. HIGHLIGHTS

By P. T. Metcalf

Meeting Night:

 The next regular meeting will be September 5. All members are reminded to come and bring a new or renewing member with them. The meeting will be held at our quarters on Grove Ave. in Wilmington at eight o'clock in the evening.

Soft Ball Team:

 Just been talking with Buster Davidson and he tells me that his team is out for top place. Of course all of the teams are trying for top spot and competition is keen. I got a look at the game between the Townies and the Legion last night and I say that the Legion would be a push-over for our boys. As for the Townies I wouldn't be surprised if we could give them a run for their money.
So, back from the golf links fellas and get in a little practice.

Membership:

 Jim Simpson reports that he has plenty of applications on hand for those wishing to join the D.A.V. I told Jim that I would pass the word on that he is willing to do all that he can to aid anyone in becoming a member.
If you are thinking of joining why not ask Jim about becoming a Life Member. You can reach him at OL 8-2833.

Whist Parties:

 The latest word on the whist parties is that they are going to be continued sometime in September. The parties will be one of the things to be discussed at the meeting tonight so come and bring any ideas that you might have with you. More on this later.

Service To Veterans:

 On the second Monday of next month National Service Officer Jim Sayre and Chapter Service Officer Bill Smith will be at our quarters on Grove Ave. to assist any veteran who needs help in preparing and presenting a claim to the VA for service-incurred injuries, or who wants assistance with other problems of rehabilitation, education or employment.
This is a free service offered by the D.A.V. Don't forget, that's Sept. 10 between seven and nine in the evening.

In General:

 What's Al Lynch building behind the clubhouse? Someone thought he was making sand boxes for the kids but I have a hunch it was something to do with horseshoes.
How about that, Al?

 I guess the Captain doesn't believe that Steve and the boys caught around three to four hundred pounds of fish their last time out.

 That's about it for now.
Think of those less fortunate than you and reach out a helping hand to them. See you next week.

ST. THOMAS' NEWS

 The annual Marian pilgrimage from Wilmington to the National Shrine of our Lady of LaSalette in Ipswich will take place Sunday, Aug.
26. All are invited to participate and join in the devotions at the shrine, which begin at 3:30 and last one hour.

 This is a splendid opportunity to pay a summer tribute to the Blessed Virgin and gain a plenary indulgence for visiting the new shrine Church.

 The Shrine is located on the North Shore just off Route 17, about one mile past
the Topsfield Fair Grounds.
There is ample parking space. A motor cavalcade will leave St. Thomas Church at 1:45 p.m.

 A request of a daily prayer for the success of the oncoming Parish Mission was made Sunday at all the services. The mission will start September 16 and will be preached by Rev. Paul Doane O.F.M. who recently conducted a mission at St. Joseph's in East Woburn. The last mission at St. Thomas was three years ago and was given by the Stigmatine Fathers of Waltham. A mission affords parishioners a chance to regain and revitalize their spiritual forces.

11 MILLION HOMES

 The postwar total of new residences built has reached the 11 million mark. The second largest year in home building history was 1955, reports the 1956 Yearbook of The American Peoples Encyclopedia. A total of 1,330,000 homes were built during the year.

 One of the longest railroad trestles in the world is a heavy timber structure spanning 13 miles of Utah's Great Salt Lake. The trestle, called one of the engineering wonders of the world when it was completed in 1904 is still in excellent condition. Engineers say it has another 25 years of useful life.

FALLOUT DETECTOR aboard a specially-equipped former Liberty ship was used to gather data on radioactive fallout from the Cherokee hydrogen-bomb shot of Operation Redwing. The collection platform atop the foremast, or "king post," is loaded with various recording instruments. The readings were especially important because fallout is now one of the principal nuclear dangers with which civil defense must contend. Civilians will be told to seek shelter in basements, "cyclone" shelters and the like if fallout from a nuclear explosion is heading their way. (U. S. Navy Photo from International)

The name of Ernest Littlewood, 120 Forest St. was drawn to serve as a Juror at the Civil Session to be held at East Cambridge, September 10, 1956.

It was unanimously voted not to allow future Carnivals to operate in Town, except at Town Park and with the approval of the Park Department.

A notice was received that the Annual Selectmen's Association Meeting will be held at the new Ocean House, Swampscott, Mass., October 11, 12, and 13, 1956. The Chairman will attend.

Messrs. McLaughlin, Fenton and Braman, representing the Shawsheen Improvement Association met with the Board and discussed various problems concerning their section of the Town.

One of the problems was the dangerous layout of the Nichols St. Railroad bridge. As a result of the discussion it was unanimously voted that the Traffic Regulations be amended to include two stop signs, at either side of the bridge, subject to the approval of the Department of Public Works.

The Board instructed the Town Manager to take up the matter of all Railroad Bridges in Town with Representatives Wilkinson and Tanner.

The gentlemen were informed that Dorchester St. will not be oiled this year.

The Town Manager advised the repair work at the North School has been completed and the key has been turned over to Lawrence Cushing of the Recreation Commission.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEETING

School will open this year on Wednesday, Sept. 5. Last dates for registration of new children will be Aug. 28 and Sept. 4.

A letter has been sent to the Board of Selectmen requesting that the following article be placed in the Warrant for the Special Town Meeting to be held this fall: "To see if the town will vote to raise and appropriate the sum of $3700.00 as approved by the School Committee in its 1956 Budget."

This, of course, is the $1200. asked for Dependence Allowance, and $2500. for evening school that the Finance Committee cut from the School Budget at the Town Meeting.

Mrs. Sybil Wiberg, formerly slated for the post of Teaching Principal of the Wildwood School, has, instead, elected to take over the position of Reading Supervisor. Miss Mary Boutilier, the regular Supervisor, has been granted a leave of absence to teach in the Air Force Dependancy School in Germany.

The Wildwood post will be filled by Miss Evelyn Desmarale, second grade teacher at the Mildred Rogers School.

Other teachers appointed at this meeting are: Leonard W. Scott, Social Studies, High School; Mary A. Marrone, English, High School; Catherine E. Harrington, Social Studies, High School; and Elementary Teachers, L. Jeannette O'Hearne, Mrs. Leah Perry and Mrs. Mary Boghassian.

Bids for supplying milk for the school children were opened and low bidder was again the Sunhurst Dairy.

When it comes to finishing wood paneling, the homeowner has many choices. He can paint the paneling to blend or contrast with other room decorations. He can use a clear finish—varnish, or shellac—to retain all the natural markings and coloring of the wood. Or he can use one of the many different stains now being sold, to give the wood more color and highlight its built-in warmth and beauty.

THE NAMING OF MARTHA'S VINEYARD

Here's one the Greeks didn't have a name for... seems everyone else but the Greeks got into the act of naming Martha's Vineyard at one time or another.

From Bank's History of Martha's Vineyard, the Island's Chamber of Commerce has come up with a list of names, descriptive and otherwise, which the Island was called since its discovery. The eventual nomenclature, however, makes Chamber officials certain of one thing—this 100-square mile island six miles off the Bay State mainland is a mighty popular vacation spot between June and late October.

Naturally, the first crack at naming it was given to the Indians, who first inhabited the "Island of Enchantment."

Being practical people, they led the way for Europeans to coin names for their early exploration reports to their kings and other powers at their particular period.

"Noi-Pe"—Meaning "Island in the Streams" (the local Chamber of Commerce insists they would have done a better job if they had inserted "Gulf") is the name accredited to the Island by its Indian inhabitants.

One of the first Europeans to name the Island was a Latin, Giovanni da Verrazano, an Italian in French service. Without a doubt, Giovanni was overcome with the beauty of the spot. He christened the Island "Luisa." This was in 1524.

The Martha's Vineyard Chamber of Commerce claims that the following year Giovanni and his bride, Luisa, honeymooned on the Island, and ever since, the Island has been a paradise for newlyweds.

NORMAN THOMAS WARNS LABOR

Organized labor has no greater champion than Norman Thomas, the long-time Socialist Party leader. As he says, in a newspaper column, "In my life I worked hard and even suffered several arrests to assert the right of workers to organize and to strike." But in that same column Mr. Thomas presents a warning that every worker and every union official should take to heart, in self-interest if for no other reason.

Mr. Thomas was gravely disturbed by the recent subway strike in New York. This was a wildcat strike, called for jurisdictional reasons by a small union. It literally tied up the city and left 750,000 people stranded, in 96 degree heat. Mr. Thomas writes: "I never believed that there was an automatic identification of the good of a particular group of workers with the good of society... The American community which has suffered more than enough under the old capitalist formula of 'the public be damned' cannot permit labor unions to say it with impunity."

Long ago, the "public be damned" school of capitalists learned of their error. Outraged public opinion brought into being all manner of laws and regulations asserting, in effect, that the public welfare is superior to any other consideration.

Today the unions are in positions of almost incredible power. By shutting off vital services, they can paralyze a great city, as happened in New York. By shutting down production in basic industries, they can deprive the whole nation of needed goods. Unless they exercise restraint from within, it will be exerted from without—just as happened in the case of industry and capital.

LOTS OF DEER

The national deer herd has grown from an estimated 500,000 in the early 1900's to almost 10,000,000 in 1956, despite the fact that hunters bag over a million annually, it is reported in the Yearbook of The American Peoples Encyclopedia.

New Gardening Gloves Protect Hands

Does keeping the garden neat and tidy leave your hands looking shipwrecked? The answer lies in an extra pair of hands—tougher and more durable than your own—that you can use for doing all the dirty work while your own original pair of hands remains white and dainty.

Research has produced new leather gardening gloves that are just that: a second pair of hands with the toughest skin covering available, split leather, which is leather made from the underneath and vital layer of the animal's hide. The sharpest rocks and brambles cannot penetrate these gloves. You can undertake the toughest gardening chore in them and your hands will be as safe as when sewing a fine seam.

Yet the gloves are so designed that they give your fingers all the freedom of movement you need. And you can lift them right out of a muddy trench, slip them off, and display a pair of well-kept, perfectly manicured hands when the new neighbor drops over to chat.

Your hands will never get chapped and roughened in these gardening gloves for they provide insulation against both cold and heat. (They're made of the same leather as welders' gloves!) They're water repellent yet since perspiration is evaporated through their pores your hands never get clammy and the spade or trowel doesn't slip in them... And no matter how long you use that spade you won't get calluses.

Another point worth mentioning: they'll protect you from poison ivy if you use them right. Don't rub your gloved hand over your face or arm while you're out. Take the gloves off gingerly and wash them out and hang them to dry without touching them. (A pair of kitchen towels will do the trick.) And don't handle them when you slip them on again either. Poison ivy sometimes defies the soap and water treatment.

Nice thing about these leather gardening gloves is that while they'll outlast your hardest perennials you can wash them by hand as often as you like and they'll remain as soft and supple as when you first wore them.

Why We Sleep—Or Don't

Sleep is usually taken for granted—unless you suffer from insomnia. Why we sleep has been a subject of speculation ever since a man named Alcmaeon, five centuries before Christ, suggested that sleep is caused by blood leaving the brain.

His idea has since been proved wrong. Recent experiments show the brain actually gains blood during sleep. Some investigators say a chemical in the body depresses the brain and puts us to sleep. Others hold that the bridges that link our nerve networks are "washed out" and the nerve impulses are unable to reach the brain, so we sleep until the bridges are rebuilt. Many scientists feel that there is a "sleep center" in the brain which sends messages to the center of consciousness, slowing its activity until we fall asleep.

Recent scientific tests, in which humans volunteered to stay awake for several days, showed that while lack of sleep had no serious physical effects, it did have a marked psychological effect, causing restlessness, irritability, loss of memory and symptoms resembling schizophrenia. There is no doubt that the brain needs a rest period.

Insomnia, therefore, can be a serious problem. It is certainly one that is widespread. Half the population has trouble falling asleep, according to the Gallup Poll.

There are three basic causes of insomnia — environmental disturbances, like a warm night or noisy neighbors; physical ailments, like a headache or fever; and emotional factors, such as tension, fear or anxiety. Insomnia caused by environmental and physical problems usually disappears when the underlying condition is corrected. Insomnia due to emotional problems, by far the most common of the three, is difficult to combat, often because you "can't put your finger on" the root of the emotional problem.

It is for insomnia caused by emotional problems that doctors most often prescribe sleeping pills, usually barbiturates, powerful drugs which should be taken only as directed by the doctor. These drugs, however, "force" you to sleep.

Recently science has made available a drug called "Miltown" that not only relaxes you for sleep (it doesn't force sleep on you) but relieves the feeling of tension and anxiety caused by the emotional problem. As a result, you prepare for sleep relaxed in mind and body, and you fall asleep when you wish to — naturally.

In a series of tests conducted at famed Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, "Miltown" gave longer uninterrupted sleep than any barbiturate, and without the potential danger of accidental overdose or habituation. "Miltown" is available only on a doctor's prescription.

Travel Shifts Into High Gear

HERE COMES TOMORROW—Italian designers have come up with this sleek plastic bus creation which they claim will cruise over the roads at 125 mph. To be powered with a gas turbine engine, one of the planned models will carry up to 32 passengers.

LONGEST ROAD IN THE WORLD—The Kansas Turnpike, terminating in this wheatfield on the Oklahoma-Kansas border is, at present, a road with no end, but not for long. Just as soon as Oklahoma allocates the necessary funds, the new four-lane superhighway will knife its way through the farmer's field and he'll have a new, faster road to get his grain to market.

MAN BEFORE THE HORSE?

—Transportation shades of the past are recorded here, but in reverse, as a London dock worker acts as the beast of burden to a valuable polo pony. The animal appears to be enjoying the novelty of watching the man do the work. (United Press Photos)

ROADS FOR TRANSPORTATION—Earthmoving equipment such as these International Harvester giants are very necessary to most forms of transportation. Before sleek automobiles and streamlined busses can skim over the ribbons of concrete and asphalt, high-speed earthmovers and crawler-type tractors, must first make the roadbeds. Fleets of equipment similar to these units, move millions of yards of rock and dirt in incredibly short spans of time and at surprisingly low costs.

4-H MOUNTIES SHOW

HUGE SUCCESS

The youth of Wilmington turned out in full force last Saturday to witness the Horse Show presented by the 4-H Mounties and their guests on Wilmington Common. While a very good attendance was present during the whole show, a sudden influx of what seemed to be hundreds of moppets appeared as if from nowhere when Rex Trailer, WBZ-TV's cowboy star, appeared.

The children had to be held back when he mounted his beautiful Palomino "Gold-rush" and galloped into the ring to lead the Mounties in serpentine display. A favorite of the children on his show on Saturday morning, "Boom Town," they crowded close to him attempting to touch him or Goldrush, some of the bolder ones trying for souvenirs in the form of hairs from the horses' tail.

The audience cheered with delight as he displayed his talents at performing with the rope and the whip. One little fellow picked at random from the audience to assist him, was rewarded with an oversize thousand dollar bill.

The Mounties made Mr. Trailer an honorary member of their club, and presented him with an attractively decorated citation which read, "Wilmington, Massachusetts, August 18, 1956. Because of your outstanding interest and wholesome example to the youth of America, Rex Trailer, we wish to present you this citation for meritorious service and make you and honorary member of our 4-H Horse Club. Signed, Joan Nims, President; Dorothy DeGrasse, Vice President; Joyce Corum, Secretary; and Anthony DelTorto, Treasurer.

Movies were made of the proceedings and are slated to be shown on Boom Town next Saturday morning. Some were featured on the 11:00 p.m. news Tuesday.

Fred Corum, who with Mrs. Corum, leader of the Mounties, was responsible for arranging for Mr. Trailer's appearance, was asked why he appeared here. Mrs. Corum explained that while it is not his practice to appear at private horse shows, he has a great interest in 4-H work and is always willing to help the youngsters. Some of this interest is no doubt due to the fact that as a boy he belonged to 4-H himself. He was raised on a large ranch in Texas, and at present has his own ranch in Pennsylvania where he raises horses.

Mr. Trailer has promised the members that he will teach them some of the quadrilles on horseback for which he is famed.

Mrs. Roger Ela, who was scheduled to judge the show, was suddenly taken ill and the services of Mrs. Ruth Karahalis, an American Horse Show Association registered judge for both Western and English Classes.

Mrs. Karahalis had a huge job, as in each class she had to judge both the manners and obedience of the horse and the ability of the rider to obtain, without apparent effort, the proper gait immediately upon request. She stated that an exhibitor is being judged from the moment he enters the show ring and is judged on his complete performance and not by any single spectacular display.

One of the highlights of the afternoon was a costume parade in which the originality and versatility of the children was evident. The Corum girls Esther and Joyce, won the funniest prize with their AbaDaba Honeymoon portrayal. The Sell children won with their covered wagon, complete with pioneers. The Allens won with their caveman family dressed in leopard skins. Another winner was Donna Dupras as Belle Starr. Mary Hartnett dressed as Uncle Sam; Mary Ann Burns as Martha Washington; and Dianne Mortelliti as Suzie Snowflake. Laurie McCabe made a beautiful butterfly, and a lovely ballerina picture was presented by Elaine Hersom in red and black. Suzan Howell was Annie Oakley, Dorothy DeGrasse as an Indian, Barry Sell was Miss Wilmington '02, and Miss Wilmington of some later date appeared with him. There were other very good entries that we haven't the names of at this writing. This part of the show was a good entertainment alone.

The Mounties have been busy for some time raising money by selling pony rides at various places around town. All the money that they raised in this manner has been donated to the Jimmy Fund in the name of their former member, Priscilla Park who passed away recently as a result of leukemia. George Spanos, chairman of the Jimmy Fund, accepted the check.

Lawrence Cushing served as announcer for the event, and Thomas Sullivan is to be commended for his able job as ringmaster. Gratitude is also extended to the police and water department for their assistance. John Clark was Gate Attendant.

Mrs. Pearl Hersom headed the refreshment committee, assisted by Mrs. James McCue, Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt, Mr. and Mrs. McCabe, Mrs. Mary Johana, Eileen Cotter and Carol Purrelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Carney, Mr. and Mrs. James McCue, Joan Nims and Dorothy DeGrasse made up the trophy committee.

Registration was handled by Mrs. Helen Clarke and Mrs. Mary Hartnett. Mr. and Mrs. Barden took charge of the Jimmy Fund Pony Ring. Miss Barbara Nims served the judge and staff a chicken salad luncheon in the Roman House for the second year.

Col. Virgil Shaw of the State Civil Defense Headquarters in Natick spoke on Civil Defense. Rene LaRivee head of Civilian Defense in Wilmington demonstrated the newly acquired radios, and the Mounties assisted him in showing how their courier service will work.

The Mounties may well be proud of their show, and Mrs. Corum may well be proud of her Mounties.

RECREATION NEWS

The Silver Lake Beach will officially close on Labor Day evening, at eight o'clock, but not before the 3rd annual Recreation Swimming carnival has been completed. Events are scheduled to start at one-thirty in the afternoon and winners in all classes will receive trophies which are made possible through the cooperation of the Wilmington Planning Board.

There will be classes for both boys and girls in each age bracket, and the first four classes which include children from the cradle to the sixteenth birthday will be confined to those persons who are residents of Wilmington or are taxpayers. This means that only persons who have beach tags will be permitted to take part in these events.

The distance swim and underwater swim will be open to all comers of both sexes.

The events will be as follows: Pee-wee races for boys and girls up to the age of seven years; Midget races, for boys and girls eleven, twelve and thirteen years of age, and intermediate races for fourteen, fifteen and sixteen years of age. The open swimmers should register with head lifeguard Dan Boylen, before one-thirty on Labor Day. There will also be several games with prizes for the winners.

On Saturday evening the members of the Recreation Pony league were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hastings on King Street where they had a weenie roast and played games as part of the wind-up for the seasons play. Mr. Hastings was surprised by the boys when they presented him with a jacket that was given for the extra effort he had given in his work and for the interest he had shown in the boys throughout the season. Mr. Cushing was an invited guest and was pleased with the spirit of the boys as well as with the way they conducted themselves throughout the baseball season.

Less than two weeks of play remain in the schedule of the softball league which is getting tighter as the season progresses. The winner of the second half of the season may not be decided until the final game and may result in a playoff, Oakies and Townies are now tied for first place, but are closely followed by the Stingers, and the Boosters, who were winners of the first half division. The final weeks schedule will be as follows: August 27, Monday, D.A.V. and Greer; Tuesday, Boosters and Townies; Wednesday, Oakies and Polychemical; Thursday, Legion and Stingers.

Mr. Cushing has announced that the regular playground activities came to a close on Friday, but that the beach will continue to be open until Labor Day, at which time races for the swimmers will be held. The beach will officially close at eight o'clock on Labor Day evening.

Members of the Wilmington High School interested in taking part in football activities for the coming year will be happy to know that physical examinations will be given by the team physician on Monday afternoon between the hours of 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. in the boys locker rooms.

Parents must realize that it is the policy of the Athletic Department to insist on physical examinations for all boys and girls taking part in major sports at the high school that we may better understand the physical make-up and demands on the part of the student.

Boys passing their physical requirements will report to the first practice session and issuance of equipment on Wednesday evening, at 5:30 p.m. Head Coach Fred Bellissimo a graduate of Notre Dame will be assisted by Mr. Keady, Mr. Ritchie, and Mr. Beaton in getting the boys in the proper condition for the coming season. They will also be assisted by co-captain Sam Cavallaro and Billy DeRosa.

HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS
NOW ELIGIBLE FOR
ARMY RESERVES

High school juniors who have reached their 17th birthday but have not reached 18½ years of age can start serving their military obligation now, rather than wait until after they graduate, according to M/Sgt. James G. Everett of the Lowell Army Recruiting Station at VA Building, 89 Appleton St.

Under the special program

When it comes to finishing wood paneling, the home owner has many choices. He can paint the paneling to blend or contrast with other room decorations. He can use a clear finish—varnish, or shellac—to retain all the natural markings and coloring of the wood. Or he can use one of the many different stains now being sold, to give the wood more color and highlight its built-in warmth and beauty.
